

National Simultaneous Story Time

National Simultaneous Storytime (NSS) is held annually. Every year a picture book, written and illustrated by an Australian author and illustrator, is read simultaneously in libraries, schools, pre-schools, childcare centres, family homes, bookshops and many other places around the country.

This is a colourful, vibrant, fun event that aims to promote the value of reading and literacy, using an Australian children's book that explores age-appropriate themes, and addresses key learning areas of the National Curriculum for Foundation to Year 6.

This year Jess will be reading "Family Tree" by Josh Pyke to the Reception - Year 6 classes for National Simultaneous Story Time on Wednesday 25th May in the library.

This story is a celebration of family and the seasons of life. We would love the R-6 children to dress up as an elderly member of their family on the day.
